

Alan Silvers

Bio

Alan Silvers, VP of Business Development, is a long-time motion picture professional with experience in Production, Post-production, Film Industry Management, Dcinema, DI, Restoration, high-end Digital Image Processing and 3D. Career stops include Universal Studios, Disney and Kodak before joining Lowry Digital in 2004. Alan was involved in the first Dcinema practical experience, assisting with worldwide theater set-up and mastering of the first titles deployed by Disney. Alan was also involved in early Digital Intermediate work while with Cinesite, a Kodak company.

Currently, Alan leads the New Business Development effort at Lowry Digital, focusing on Sales; Marketing & PR; Emerging technologies for motion picture capture, noise reduction and detail enhancement; and 3D. Alan assists early adopters of these technologies to establish workflows and processes to deliver the highest quality images to the theater, on Blu-ray, and for broadcast.