

William Sargent

Chief Executive and Co-founder of Framestore, March 1986.

The company has created digital images (visual effects, animation and filmgrading) for major Hollywood studios, UK and US broadcasters and international advertising agencies. The company has won most major creative awards internationally including the Academy Award (Oscar), British Academy (Bafta), US Television Academy (Primetime Emmy), Royal Television Society and many more. Today the company employs over 600 staff (artists, computer scientists, producers and mathematicians) in offices in Soho London, SoHo New York and Reykjavik.

William is a Fellow, Royal Society for the Arts, a non executive Board director of HM Treasury, and was knighted in the Queen's 2008 Birthday List.

For company credits see, www.framestore.com