Many of 2005's top movies had great special effects. But only one can win the award from the Visual Effects Society.

The nominees include "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe," "King Kong," "Star Wars: Episode III -- Revenge of the Sith" and "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire."

The winner will be announced Feb. 15 at the society's fourth annual awards ceremony.

The Visual Effects Society is a professional organization that strives to promote visual effects in the film industry.
